About Us

At Boating Licence Course, we're proud of our training history. Since, 1993, we have accumulated over 25 years' experience in delivering safe boating qualifications and teaching safe boating skills.

Over the years, Boating Licence Course has been able to refine and develop new courses and course structures based on student feedback. In other words, we strive to deliver the best in boating safety standards.

Customer Care

Good customer service experiences are important to us. We aim to do the following:

- Act on feedback: When we receive feedback from students, positive or negative, we make sure it's acted upon. Your opinion matters to us.
- Maintain student self-service options: For students who want to find their own solutions or just discover more info on the course, we have an up-to-date FAQ page on our website to help.
- Going the extra mile: We'll do everything we possibly can to assist you at all stages of your experience with us.
- Firm but fair testing: You will pass when you have the skills.

Following on with our commitment to customer care, we've made every effort to have a high-quality course teaching all the elements of safe boating.

Our safe boating knowledge, extensive experience, and willingness to improve our teaching methods has meant that the vast majority of students can achieve success on day 1. It's this effort to teach it correctly and teach it well that's yet another sign of great customer service.

In the rare situation a student is not quite ready to pass, we'll simply invite the student back, we'll even cover the cost of your future training fees, for as many times as required.

Key Messages – Boating Safety

You'll see our key messages a lot throughout our course; that's because we've identified these messages as the 2 most important things you should take away from our time with you

Our business owner has experienced firsthand how much fun boating can be. But sadly, he's also seen a tragedy when a good day's boating goes terribly wrong. On this day a turning point occurred. The business transformed to really look at and examine what is required to make a safe boat trip so the business owner will never lose another friend this way.

Our friend did a lot of things well and was a very experienced boater and our key message of 'Wear Your Lifejacket' was created because we genuinely have learnt the hard way that people need to wear a lifejacket whilst boating.

Boating requires responsibility and your lifejacket needs to be worn.

Students - Welcoming Gift

Students are welcomed to our company starting with some free boating safety guides. As a welcome to our course, we have made more resources available for safe boating.

What to expect as a student

From pre-booking to post-course, we'll make every effort to give you clear, precise information so you can make an informed choice and know what to expect when you undertake a course with us.

Pre-course

Our website contains all the information you need to decide if our courses are right for you. We have the following resources available on our website:

- Student information pack (this document)
- Frequently asked questions & answers
- General course information
- Information outlining the steps needed to achieve your licence
- Contact form to send us an email with your enquiry
- Our office phone number for further information & bookings

All office staff, all day every day, consistently follow our phone guide closely, so we can rest easy knowing you're yet another happy and informed student

After purchasing your course using the information above, we'll then give you access to our boating safety material so you can arrive prepared and ready to get your qualification!.

At the course

Our training team will commence the boat licence & PWC licence theory training course. There's a process we follow at every course we've ever done, and this is as follows...

- Checking of Proof Of Identification (POI)
 - For Young Adults (aged up to 16 years old), we also check their parents ID and ensure they are indeed the parent of the Young Adult, not a sibling, friend etc.
- Begin the boating safety tuition for all students
 - The course will start on time, those who turn up late may be denied entry and must reschedule to another course (fees may apply)
- Our trainer will ensure you are taught to the highest quality and all the required topics of the General Boat & PWC Licence Syllabus, and then some, are covered.
 - These include Trip Preparation & Planning, Navigation, Safety Equipment, Emergencies, Marine Environment & much more.
- There will be a mid-course break of 15 minutes
- At the end, we'll commence the test
 - Testing will be done under a fair, but strict, testing climate
 - Testing assistance will not be provided, unless the student has informed the office upon booking that they may require assistance with language, literacy, or numeracy and special arrangements are made prior
 - Test results are fair; we want you to know the answers by your own accord. Cheating you through will not help you, or your friends & family, stay safe on the water.

- Upon successful completion, our training team will give you the licence qualification & remind you once more of what you need to do from there
 - Take our paperwork, with your logbook (once completed - boat licence only) to ServiceNSW anytime within 12 months to purchase your licence.
 - The licence fee per year cannot be covered by the course; this is payable to Service NSW.
- Although rare, if you are unsuccessful, you'll simply need to call our office, and they'll get you into another boat & PWC licence course of your choosing, free of charge.

We want you to understand what you are booking, and what the course involves. We strive to produce the happiest, safest boaters possible, so transparency is very important to us.

Assessment Policy

Every student must complete the training prior to attempting the test. There is a multiple-choice assessment within the course. Other than what is stated at the course, no items are allowed to be used during the test. Failure to comply in this regard will result in an immediate failure.

To assist you in passing the test, we provide comprehensive, yet easy to read, pre-course study material upon booking so you can be well prepared. See your confirmation package for the link to your study page.

Re-assessment Policy

From time-to-time people may be required to retest, good advice would be to do a bit more study. After this, if further training and assessment are required, we may give you an invitation to return. A small fee may be applicable.

Rescheduling Policy

Once you reserve your seat in any given class, you are securing a space and others may be denied the opportunity to attend. Consequently, we reserve the right to refuse your rescheduling to another class. Boating Licence Course also reserves the right to reschedule any given class due to circumstances beyond our control. If we must reschedule a class, you'll be given the opportunity to attend any class given by us within 1 year or to a course credit

Completing The Logbook

The practical boating logbook is an easy option so you can achieve practical boating experience.

We do not fill out your logbook for you as this is done on your own with a licenced person who has held a NSW boat licence for 3 or more years.

This can be a friend, family member, co-worker; whoever you go boating with. For your convenience, a free digital copy of the logbook is available in your pre-course study material or at any ServiceNSW centre.

The logbook is an essential requirement for those who choose to go on & get a NSW boat licence. It is designed to help you learn how to operate your vessel & learn your waterways.
